Bedminster Township Recreation, in partnership with The Friends of the Jacobus Vanderveer House, is thrilled to once again offer a unique summer camp experience -- Summer History Camp at the Jacobus Vanderveer House! This historic Bedminster landmark building is the focal point for this hands-on 18th century fun-filled, history-centered summer enrichment program. Children will be dressed in authentic 18th century clothing and experience activities reminiscent of life in the 1700s including craft projects, basket weaving, rug making, bee-keeping, music, games, open-fire cooking, and architectural exploration. Be sure to visit www.jvanderveerhouse.com for a peek at last year's camp.

History Camp is led by John Philips, Bedminster Middle School History Teacher, with special presentations by experienced professionals. Camp takes place in the natural historic setting of the Jacobus Vanderveer House, located at River Road Park in Bedminster. The camp is open to all Somerset County residents between the ages of 9 and 12. Please register early as class size is limited to 15 students. The fee for Session 1 is $175, and Session 2 is $195 and includes either a boy's or girls' period costume to be worn daily to camp. Please use the River Road Park entrance off Route 202/206 for access to the Jacobus Vanderveer House.

About the Jacobus Vanderveer House - For over two centuries, the Jacobus Vanderveer House has been at the center of Bedminster Township's rich and colorful history. The house, built in the 1760s, is the last surviving building associated with the Vanderveers, a family prominent in Bedminster Township history from its earliest settlement through the 19th century. The house later served as headquarters for General Henry Knox during the winter of 1778-79, when the American artillery was located in the village of Pluckemin during the Second Middlebrook Encampment of the Revolutionary War. The house is the only known building associated with the Pluckemin encampment which is considered to be the first installation in America to train officers in engineering and artillery. The house was later enlarged by two additions in the nineteenth century, remodeled in the twentieth century, and subsequently abandoned. The Township of Bedminster purchased the home and the surrounding area as part of River Road Park in the 1990s. Recently the home was restored by The Friends of the Jacobus Vanderveer House, a dedicated group of volunteers, with plans to open the home as a museum and educational center.
